

further explanation of why our meetings last until the last late hour.

Cliff Lenz, Rudy Zimmerman and crew, who have been valiantly fighting the chuck-holes with sprinkling can and brush, put on a wild demonstration of welcome when Roy Boldt appeared around Neah-Kah-Nie Mountain with his Mechanized Division.

Harry Melton, who came to Western Oregon to get the Alkali dust and sage brush out of his hair has recently been transferred to Redmond. Don't feel too badly about it, Harry, you may some time again be able to visit the land of Cheese, Trees and Ocean Breeze.

Skinner Dameler, Pave Patch No. 1, is using all his spare time digging clams on Tillamook Bay.

CHAPTER No. 16—GRANTS PASS

Our chapter is one of the youngest in the State Association. We have over 60 members, and our meetings are alternated between Medford and Grants Pass.

The regular monthly meeting was held at Grants Pass, and was well attended. A new president and vice president were elected. This was necessitated by the inability of our former president, Mr. James Bedingfield, to attend meetings and also by the enlistment of Walter V. Poole, vice president, in the U.S. Navy. Paul Robertson was elected president. Carol Converse vice president.

We have one veteran of World War I and one of World War II in our Chapter, the latter is Mr. Rulo Roberts, who has been honorably discharged from the Army.

We adopted a constitution and By-laws at our last meeting.

The State must improve the effectiveness of their administration if they do not wish to lose still further in the struggle for power with the Federal Government. (W. B. Graves, "American State Government")
