Mr. Forrest Stewart, executive secretary of the State Association, was present and gave a very interesting talk on his work in the forming of chapters in Salem. Altogether, the meeting was very enlightening to members and visitors present. Chapter No. 17 is going along very nicely and we look forward to the time when our membership will be greatly increased.

MARION CHAPTER No. 18

The next meeting of Marion Chapter, and which will be its first since its organization, will be held in the auditorium of the Salem Chamber of Commerce, Friday evening, October 13th.

Reports will be received from the rules and resolutions committee and from a committee appointed to make nominations for officers for the coming year.

The rules and resolutions committee has prepared and will submit a set of by-laws for the guidance of the chapter. The constitution which was adopted at the first meeting of the chapter is that of the state organization.

Marion chapter starts out with a membership of 36 of which 14 are women, all of whom are employed in the departments located in the state office building.

The rules and resolutions committee is composed of Fred Bynon, chairman,

R. F. Lockard and Miss Marjorie Price.

The nominating committee consists of E. D. Lindburg, chairman, Miss Viola Schrenk, and George V. Nederman. The following nominations have been made by the committee: for president, D. B. Reavis, for vice president, Arthur W. Lamke, for secretary-treasurer, J. W. Neville. Election of officers will be held at the meeting on October 13.

MEN WANTED

Not gold, but only men, can make

A nation great and strong.

Men who, for truth and honor's sake,

Stand fast, and suffer long.

Brave men, who work while others sleep,

Who dare while others shy.

They build a nation's pillars deep,

And lift them to the sky.
