

last issue of the Oregon State Employee so he appointed a news committee.

We were honored with the presence of Mr. Forrest Stewart at our November meeting. He gave a very enlightening and encouraging talk on the activities of the association. A number of Douglas County employees were there; they have formed an association of their own, but would like very much to be a part of our association.

Mr. Erwin Clark accompanied Mr. Stewart to Coos Bay where they carried the banner for our cause.

Scotty Watson is having an awful time chewing his "spinach". He says he feels just like a babe, but just wait until he gets his store teeth and he will show anybody how to chew it. He is afraid that his store teeth will chatter when he talks so he up and bought a house on wheels so that he can be by himself. Who is going to keep house?

Mr. P. P. Whitmore and Mr. George Wood have been transferred to Roseburg for the winter, it's not a bad place to be in winter; they tell me it gets pretty cold in Eugene at times.

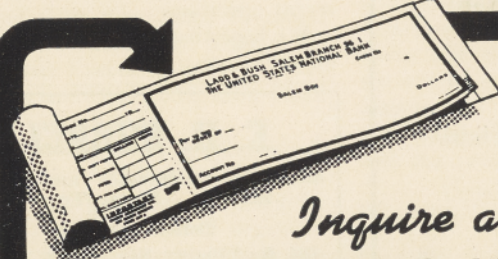

The fishing round Myrtle Creek is not good enough for Geo. Baker, Kirk Lawrence and Elic Dubell so they have gone to Elkton for a month or so. Good fishing fellows, and bring back the big ones, but don't forget that the people over there would like to have that road straightened out.

CHAPTER No. 5—ROSE CITY

At the last regular meeting of Rose City chapter, held on January 12, election of officers for the coming year was held, with the following officers elected: President, Ivan Dakin, incumbent; Vice President, J. Claude Moore; Secretary-Treasurer, C. D. Haynes, incumbent.

Mr. Dakin and Mr. Haynes have acted as president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, for the past year and were elected unanimously for the coming year. Edwin Johnson was vice president during 1944 and as he is expecting a call to arms at any time now, he declined to run for office again. Ed is
