Lt. L. R. Chandler, Sea Bees, "Pop" as he is known to his many friends, was a welcome visitor in Salem recently. Pop is home on leave after seeing service in France for the past several months.

Miss Birdie Hebel, ex-chief mailing clerk at the Highway Department in Salem, graduated last summer from yeoman's school in Cedar Falls, Iowa, and is now a Yeoman, third class in the Waves. She is stationed in San Francisco where she works in the Navy offices in the Federal Building. Birdie finds San Francisco an ever-interesting and active place in which she is happy to be stationed.

Capt. Daniel J. McLellan of the United States Marines, wearing three combat stars, spent a 30-day leave in Salem, Oregon, and Monterey, California, after two years in the South Pacific. While home he was married to Jane Vincent of Monterey and San Francisco, Calif.

Capt. McLellan was employed by the Highway Department during vacations while going to Oregon State college.

He is the son of D. J. McLellan, of the State Engineer's Department.

Lt. Comdr. A. F. Parson is in the St. Mathias group of islands in the South Pacific.

Sgt. Cyril R. Suing of Salem, 21-year-old ball turret gunner on the crew of a B-17 Flying Fortress, has recently been awarded the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" while participating in heavy bombardment missions in the eighth air force offensive against the enemy over continental Europe.

Before entering the army air forces in May, 1943, he was employed by the Boeing Aircraft Co., in Seattle, as a mechanic. He won his wings at Las Vegas gunnery school in March 1944, and is now a member of the 486th bomb group, a unit of the third bombardment division, the division cited by the President for historic shuttle bombing of the Messerschmitt plant at Regensburg, Germany.

The sergeant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Suing of 1045 N. Church street, Salem. His father is an employee of the State Industrial Accident Commission.

Mr. Loren R. White, Firm Division Supervisor for the State Industrial Accident Commission has the honor of having three sons in the service.

Ellis B. White, PhM 2/c U.S.N.R. is spending a 26-day leave with his wife, the former Janrose Wimer and his baby son, Phillip Lynn, born Sunday, December 17, 1944. Mr. White has just returned from six months duty in the Aleutian Islands.

Pvt. Loren J. White of the Army Paratroopers also spent a ten-day leave with his parents in December, Mr. and Mrs. Loren R. White of Rt. 2 Salem.
