

SERVICE NEWS

folk, Virginia. Paul was helper on the Green Springs.

Lt. (j.g.) Eugene Streamer is now at Kingsvill, Texas. He was a former Green Springs employee.

Private Billie Funderburg is at Camp Robinson, Arkansas and was a former Green Springs employee.

Walter V. Poole, M.M. 1/c, U.S. Navy was a former Siskiyou patrol employee.

Capt. Wm. Bromley, son of our District Maintenance Superintendent, is a Captain of ordnance serving overseas.

Roy Harnish, Maintenance patrol man at Eagle Point has a son in the Army. This son was wounded in action but is in the States now recuperating.

We all are eager for news from former State employees or of sons and daughters of State employees now in the service.

There is no better method of distributing such information than through Service News in this magazine.

Data submitted for Service News should include:

Rank and name of service man or woman.

Address (this will not be printed, but will be used for our mailing list). "The Oregon State Employee" is sent without charge to those in the service.

Former occupation and department, or name of parent with occupation and department.

General location such as France, Italy, South Pacific.

Any interesting news or excerpts from letters.

Such information will be forwarded to Service News by the secretary of your local chapter or you may send it to D. J. McLellan, 1100 Chemeketa St., Salem.

By the way, do you know what State employee is best represented in the service. So far we know of one family with four.

Sergeant: "What is the first thing you do when cleaning a rifle?"

Private: "Look at the number."

Sergeant: "What has that to do with it?"

Private: "I want to be sure I'm cleaning my own rifle."

Colonel (after reviewing troops): "Hang it all. What's the idea of parading all the big men in front of the little men."

Lieut.: "It's the sergeant's fault. He used to run a fruit store."

Two WAVES were en route to California. As their train slowed down, their car stopped opposite an Orange Packing Plant. "Did you ever!" said the first WAVE. "Look at that big sign — 'SUNKISSED NAVELS' . . . must be Hollywood."
