of the group, which touched off a spontaneous expression of opinions by guests and members present.

Any woman employee, member or non-member of the Association, who wishes to attend one of these meetings is cordially invited by the committee to contact one of its members. The committee will appreciate the support of other members of the Salem chapters, as general member participation is necessary to help any membership committee attain its maximum effectiveness.

St. Louie Sue, who has been taking a Nurse's Aid course, says she is now so proficient that she can make the patient without disturbing the bed.

The boat had just left Portland when a sprightly little flapper stowaway was discovered in a lifeboat. The captain ordered her sent to his cabin.

"I don't know what to do with you," he said as he questioned her.

"Say, skipper," she said finally, "how long have you been a sailor?"

in a pretty part of France so can visualize the hills around Dallas and that country between there and Salem.

"Since coming to France I have seen quite a bit of country and have traveled over a number of their main highways. I was particularly interested in the trees along the highways. If you ever saw a death trap they have it here. The roads are approximately as wide as that section of highway between Shedd-Tangent, etc. (you should see that section now) but the French planted trees right on the edge of the road and in traveling one can see where some poor motorist hit these trees. They also have stones painted white along the edges approximately every 50 feet so the idea is I guess, if you don't hit a tree you hit a stone marker. Farther north the roads are torn up due to the heavy fighting. Tanks tear up a road also so all in all the roads here need a
