

at the Emmanuel Hospital, Portland, Oregon, is in the Nurses Cadet Corps.

S. G. Hingle, Jr., son of S. G. Hingle, Sr., of the SIAC Claims Division, completed his Basic Training at Camp Swift, Texas, March 3, and is now waiting for his assignment.

"Larry" Blaisdell of Claims, SIAC, reports on his two sons:

"Lt. Laurence M. Blaisdell has been in the Army since February, 1942, with the Anti-aircraft Artillery. He has been with General Hodges' First Army since landing in Normandy, and was in most of the major battles in France. He was in Aachen at the time of the Nazi break-through in December and saw several days of tough fighting at that time.

Lt. Don Blaisdell is in the Army Air Corps, and has been in the Ferry Command. For the past two years, he has ferried planes to England, Africa, Persia and as far as Calcutta, India, across the Atlantic Ocean, with one trip to Australia across the Pacific. He has just been transferred to California and his future missions will be across the Pacific."

Ted Peerenboom of the Fiscal Control Division, SIAC, was honored by a visit from his son, Cpl. Raymond E.

Peerenboom, radio operator-gunner on a B-24, who is stationed at Walla Walla Air Base for his final training before leaving for overseas.

Now serving in the Pacific War Theater is Cpl. Carl S. Gretzinger, known to Salem folks as a U.S. mail carrier before entering the service. Cpl. Gretzinger is a photographer and photo lab technician in the Army Air Corps and now stationed in the Marianas Islands with our B-29 bombers.

Mrs. Gretzinger, a former employee of the State Unemployment Compensation Commission, is now with the Fiscal Control Division of the State Industrial Accident Commission.

Wm. Morely of the Fiscal Control Division, SIAC, enjoyed a surprise visit from his daughter, Ellen, serving in
