

the WAC. She is assigned as Secretary to the Advisory Training Board and assistant physical training instructor at Moody Field, Georgia.

Mrs. Frank Yancey of the Firm Accounting Section, SIAC, has returned recently from a visit with her husband, Cpl. Frank Yancey at Camp Swift, Texas.

Everett (Tom) Osborn, son of H. E. Osborn of the SIAC, has recently completed a course of study at the Aviation Ordnance Course at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn., and is now stationed at Jacksonville, Fla., studying to be a turret gunner on torpedo planes.

Jerry Osborn is stationed at North Bend, Oregon, awaiting assignment as an Aviation Machinist Mate.

S/Sgt. Cyril R. Suing, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Suing, of the SIAC, is home for a 21-day furlough after eight months of service on a B-17 bomber of the Eighth air force as a ball turret gunner. He wears the Air Medal with four Cak Leaf Clusters and two battle stars on his ETO ribbon. His unit was presented the Presidential Unit Citation.

Phyllis McDonald of Industrial Accident Commission left to join her husband, Jay H. McDonald, Ph.M.1/c, stationed at Pensacola, Fla.

Lt. L. N. Schade and his wife, the former Mary Shreve, have left for Douglas, Arizona, after spending a leave here with Mrs. Schade's mother, Sylvia Shreve.

Lt. Schade has returned from New Guinea after 63 missions.

Robert White, R.M.3/c, who has been in the South Pacific for the past fifteen months, is home on a twenty-seven day furlough visiting with his parents and friends.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren White of the Keiser District, and has two brothers in the service. Ellis B. White, Ph.M.2/c is at the present time located at the Naval Hospital in Seattle and Robert will lgo to Seattle to visit with him for a few days while here. The other brother, Loren J.

Jackson Hotel and Coffee Shop

Fine Foods

Comfortable Accommodations

Machlin Robinson, Manager

Medford, Oregon

Eugene Concrete Pipe & Products Co.

P. O. BOX 947 - EUGENE, OREGON