

passing of the Civil Service and Retirement Bills spoke to a group of state Liquor Control members at Redmen's Hall on the merits of both bills, at the invitation of Chapter 17, which resulted in quite a number of new members who are being welcomed into the fold. There were also a number of state employees from other departments in attendance.

We understand that Forest Stewart has picked up several good advertisements in Portland for our Magazine. Good Luck, Forest.

Mr. David C. Bryant, a former president of Chapter 17, O.S.E.A., who has been away for some time, has been welcomed back to the P.U.C. Portland office, and has been appointed Chairman of the Membership Committee for Chapter 17 by our President, Mr. Al French.

CAPITAL CHAPTER No. 19

As Capital Chapter No. 19 was born in the midst of the recent Legislative battle to attain our objectives, most of its energy has to date been concentrated in that direction.

However, after Willamette Chapter No. 21 entertained us on February 13th with horse play and refreshments, both high class, we reached a sufficient state of social consciousness to return the favor at our regular meeting held April 9th and were proud of the way our ladies acted as hostesses. The highlight of the evening was the appearance of State President I. A. DeFrance, who ably answered multitudinous questions on retirement and civil service, notwithstanding he had just passed through the trying ordeal of fatherhood.

We are now in the midst of a membership contest between the male and female members with the losers stuck for a dinner. We have already breached the walls of the State Land Board and expect to take several other beach-
