

editor of the Oregon Voter, George Aiken, State Budget Director, Representatives John Snellstrom, Bert Snyder; Senators Frederick Lamport, Angus Gibson, and Dean Walker.

It was suggested that chapter and members make their appreciation known in similar or other manner.

The board extended their sympathy to Mrs. Rynerson in the illness of her husband and directed that a letter be addressed to her conveying those sentiments. Mr. Ford was delegated to call on Mr. Rynerson to express verbally the sympathies of the Board.

Due to Mr. Rynerson's anticipated extended incapacity, the appointment of alternate district director, Earl E. Stream, to assume the responsibilities of the office of District Director was approved.

The Board approved the appointment of a committee to encourage and assist municipal and county employee groups in organizing themselves to insure effective expression in the matters pertaining to the state wide retirement system. The committee was appointed and approved as follows: E. F. Chidsey, chairman, Erwin Clark, W. P. Laws, Hedda Swart, A. B. Dean and Dave Falkenhagen.

The committee to conduct the contest for design for an association pin or emblem was appointed as follows: Bert Simpson, chairman, Russell Pratt and Lynn F. Cronemiller.

It was announced that district attorneys were considering the formation of a chapter to be composed of district attorneys only.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.
