gon State Employee every two months. I get positively sentimental about the scenes depicted on the cover, as I have seen most of the places pictured. It sure brings back some very pleasant memories. I'd give anything to be back in God's country again, working with you. Then too, the magazine is about the only way I have of keeping up with the people I knew and worked with."

Sgt. Lloyd O. Dewey, Army Air Corps, former Weighmaster, now stationed at Bryan, Texas, visited friends in Bend and vicinity a few days ago. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dewey and infant son.

Leonard Reister of McMinnville, formerly employed on Moffit's paving crew No. 6, has served in the 40th Construction Battalion since 1941. In the same battalion were two other highway maintenance employees, Lester Davidson and Si Dane. Leonard had a constant case of malaria while in New Guinea which didn't add to the pleasure of living in that far away island. One of the numerous jobs the CB's are called upon to do is operate saw-mills and Leonard spent some time as instructor in that work. He has been home on furlough and reported at Quoddy Village, Maine on July 10.

Lt. Robert M. Mulvey has been home on furlough for ten days, visiting his mother in Oregon City and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Marcia Smith in Salem. He will return to Fort Knox for transfer to Camp Hood, Texas.

Cpl. Ransom Carpenter, son of Homer V. Carpenter, stationed with the Air Corps in England, writes that he has travelled nearly 9,000 miles in the last two months. His latest trip took him to Glasgow, Scotland. He adds that he has picked up a "wee bit of English slang," and is billeted with an English family named Harleston, at Beck Hall, Norfolk, England.

E. Thomas Osborn, a bombardier in the Naval Air Service, has been home for a visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Osborn, before going to San Diego for permanent squadron assignment. Tommy received his preliminary training at Memphis, Tennessee and Jacksonville, Florida.
