

time he was asked. He has 36½ points, ten more would have let him out.

John A. Howry is on the job again after four years and two months in the Army. He has seen most of Europe and met with the Russians in Germany. We are glad to have him back.

Bill Grabenhorst is back with the Highway Department again after spending quite some time with the Seabees in the Pacific. He was in Okinawa toward the last of the war. Bill is working with the extra gang at Seaside.

Joe Arnold is a civilian again after duty with the Army engineers and is employed with the extra gang at Seaside. Joe looks good and like he might have been eating three meals a day. We are glad to have him with us again.

Leonard Batzner was last heard of in Camp Parks, California. Since the last reduction in points he should be eligible for release and we expect him to show up most any time.

Floyd Simon is in the hospital in Guam where he underwent a major operation. Floyd has been in Okinawa and was just ready to come home. We are hoping it will not be long until he is back on the job.

Leland Dixon is back with the Highway Department. Leland was recently discharged from the Marines. He is back at his old job as officeman for J. D. Walker at Burns.

Lt. Commander Lloyd Chandler is being discharged from the Navy C.B.'s. Pop has been in several theaters of action. Glad to have you back Pop.

Lt. Clare Jones is home after almost three years duty in the European theatre. Before entering the service Jones was foreman of the state sign crew in Klamath Falls. Assigned to the 2nd Armoured (Hell on Wheels) Division, Clare saw service in Africa, Sicily, France and on into Berlin. While in Normandy he was awarded the bronze star and given a field commission. He also wears the Purple Heart and the "fourguire," a special medal conferred by the Belgians upon members of the 2nd Armoured Division. Clare expects to be out of the service soon and back on the job.

Wayne W. Lithgow enlisted in the C.B.'s in July, 1942, and left the states in April, 1944. While overseas he was stationed at Pearl Harbor, Saipan, and Okinawa with a Heavy Equipment Department. He left Okinawa with the 3rd Fleet, aboard the battleship Iowa,
