

terest in our organization and thus present a real challenge for us to remain full of purpose and of service to them.

It is good to know that Jerry Farrar is back on the job again. Take it easy, Jerry, and let the other fellow carry a part of the load.

Art Burt, that active man from Woodburn, has been getting to the meetings of late, no doubt due to his finding out that gas rationing is over.

Webb Ross, Oness Whaley and Art Rockafellow and Co. continue to put out some first class entertainment and grub at the meetings.

Mrs. Heinz braves the storms and maintains her regularity of attendance, a shining example to us all and our real hope to encourage others of the girls to "get the habit." Really, girls it's safe to come! And where would you find better company?

Our hats are off to the S.I.A.C. Chapter at Salem for coming up with a splendid idea of holding joint meetings for all Salem chapters with each Chapter alternating as host. We plan to go right along with their idea and look forward to a bang-up good time in the near future. Watch for the date!

BEND CHAPTER No. 3

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Taylor returned from their well earned vacation on October 26th, to their home on the range, Alkali Lake. They spent a very pleasant ten days soaking up sea breezes and slashing smoke on the Oregon Coast and Willamette Valley points.

The Bramlettes returned October 27th from a stay at The Dalles with Clyde's parents, where he apparently recuperated rapidly from his recent serious illness caused from too much patching oil smoke. Mrs. Bramlette came down from her lookout on Fremont Point on Winter Ridge long
