

come, see, listen, and find out for yourself.

This will also be our annual election meeting and all Chapter members should be present to help choose good officers for the 1946 term. We shall have need for good leadership during the coming year and you should select your officers carefully, and then give them your every support.

The following members have been chosen by our President Mr. French to serve on the Nominating Committee, Roy W. Petterson, Chairman, Edward S. Bittman, and Harry T. Umbach.

Acting under authority of President De France, Allen French, President of Chapter 17 and Eloise Douglas, Secretary, and Ivan Dakin, President Rose City Chapter, and C. D. Haynes, Secretary Rose City Chapter, met and nominated the following for the positions of District Director and Alternate District Director—Harry C. Broadwell of Rose City Chapter, and Dave Bryant, of Chapter 17.

Now that the vacation season is over we can all settle down to serious business, and do great things for our Chapter.

CAPITOL CHAPTER No. 19

After benefitting by delivery of the goods at our last two meetings, the membership is beginning to properly appreciate the program-arranging ability of Esther Hilmer and the culinary and serving skill of Mrs. Perry, Vivian Hinkle, Mrs. Simpson, and Florence Ames. A kitchen doesn't scare these charming and accomplished girls at all.

From the marvelous success at pinning the tail on the donkey, showing a surprising familiarity with a mule's anatomy, it appears quite a few of the members must have cultivated corn in old Missouri with "Pop" Harland and President Truman.

Our regular meeting is now the 3rd Thursday in the month and permanent meeting place, The Women's Club.

Nominations for 1946 officers were as follows: For President, Paul Gemmell, E. A. Boyle, James Young; for Vice-President, E. A. Boyle, Esther Hilmer, C. V. Richardson; for Sec.-Treas., G. E. Hollowell.
