

H. Clymer, I. A. DeFrance and Ermal Owens, Delegates. For a while we thought we also had a President in W. O. Widdows who was officially elected. However Bill was forced to decline the position due to the press of other business and his inability to be present at the meeting. We plan to elect some other good man to this position at our February meeting and then we will have a complete roster of officers, all of whom are well able to serve the Chapter and its interests during the coming year.

This year sees both the Civil Service Law and the Retirement Law begin to actively function and we foresee much interesting discussion of these two acts as they are put into effect. Our Chapter will find much to talk about, no doubt, but little to squawk about, we hope.

At our January meeting, at which some fifty members were in attendance, we noted a marked increase in the number of ladies present, about a baker's dozen, and it certainly sweetens the atmosphere and lends color and charm to our monthly get-togethers. Maybe when the ladies' attendance surpasses that of the men, the meetings will liven up considerably.

As more of our Service men return, we note many new faces at our meetings and sometimes wonder if the mortality rate among us "old timers" is really as high as our non-attendance might indicate. We certainly welcome our many new members and the interest they show in Chapter affairs, but let's not throw the burden of maintaining the life of our Chapter entirely on their shoulders. Come on out to the meetings and meet the boys and girls!
