OSEA Dance

One of the features provided for the entertainment of delegates and visitors to the recent Council meeting was a dance held in the Mirror Room of the Marion Hotel on Friday, February 22nd. The music was provided by the Top Hatters under the direction of Guy Albin, the father of the secretary of the Siac Chapter.

A social room was provided by the Dance Committee for those who wished to relax and talk instead of dancing.

Guests from all parts of the state and representing most of the chapters were present. Many a reunion with old friends was noted. Everyone seemed to be filled with the party spirit and good fellowship and fun prevailed.

Arranging the affair were Webb Ross, chairman, Maxine Orth, Jim Turnbull, Gilbert Wynkoop and sixteen assistants.

Mine honor is my life; both grow in one; take honor from me and my life is done.
