

The section maintenance crew at Cheshire has a 100% membership in the Association. Foreman L. R. Dade deserves the credit.

Another good man gone wrong! Alvin H. Moe, employed on Lockyear's crew, and Miss Bender, were married April 27. The members of the Association wish them happiness and prosperity in their venture.

L. R. Smith and extra gang have left Eugene. They will be with the Nash oiling crew this summer.

Mrs. Helen Dorais is now working in the maintenance office for Superintendent A. J. Ford.

ALBANY CHAPTER No. 7

This chapter has changed its meeting place to the Moose hall in Albany. Due to the constant increase in membership, the old meeting place proved inadequate. In order to do this, we found it necessary to change our meeting date to the fourth Monday of each month. About 45 members attended our April meeting, which was a record for us. Perhaps the $12 jackpot had something to do with it. However, Quintus Underwood took home the winnings.

Fred Luke, Alvin Van Valkenberg, Theron Hicks, Jack Rubby, Frank Lutz, Howard Monson and David McHugh have quit their maintenance jobs and joined up with the paving crews. Earl Nash has departed to take up his summer duties as oiling crew foreman. Glen Adams will take charge of both the maintenance crew and the landscape crew at Albany during the summer months.

The Colorado Lake dance sponsored by this chapter came off on schedule and turned out to be about the biggest little dance that fifteen people ever attended. The only ones who failed to
