 have a good time were the members that failed to show up (for confirmation ask our Executive Secretary).

Paving crews, under the supervision of F. A. Starkey and Milo Barker, are operating in this area at present, and all members of their crews are cordially invited to attend our next meeting, which will be held on May 27, in the Moose hall, Albany.

ASTORIA CHAPTER No. 8

John Howry has transferred to Mist as helper. Johnny was married recently. He and his wife are planning to make their permanent home there, and it is reported they have bought a nice ranch.

Astoria had a well represented meeting March 13. Members from the fish hatcheries at Clatskanie, Jewell, Seaside and Astoria were present.

Mr. Floyd Simon, former bridge crew foreman, is visiting in Astoria. Mr. Simon is still in the navy and has the rank of lieutenant. He is hoping to be released soon.

Several members attended a meeting sponsored by the retirement committee regarding the Retirement Act. They reported a good attendance.

Fred Stults' extra gang has moved to Astoria. They have removed slides that have blocked the Columbia River highway for the past four months, also removing slides on the Nehalem and Coast highways. They plan to move to Clatskanie about April 1.

Mr. Gilbert Sweet, operator on the Lewis and Clark bridge, is seriously ill at the Columbia hospital in Astoria.

Earl Addington was painfully, but not seriously, injured when struck by a handle protruding from a navy truck on his way to work as operator on the Youngs Bay bridge.

Arvid Olson, veteran of World War I, has accepted a position as operator on the Lewis and Clark bridge.

THE DALLES CHAPTER No. 9

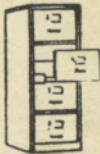

We are trying out a new idea for our monthly meetings. The crews in this district take turns about in furnishing entertainment at the meetings, also for refreshments.

The busy beavers of Dufur were first guinea pigs for the experiment. They persuaded Paul McCulloch of The Dalles to take an evening off from Insurance and show some of that hocus po-
