Bus Gibson and his Hot Patch crew left for Bend, April 5, to begin their summer's work program.

With the repairing of oil pots for the summer crews, one can hear the ringing of the busy hammers in the blacksmith shop—take your time Smithies, we all know what that means.

Our congratulations go to Smoky See and Hershel Harris and their wives on their recent marriages—thanks for the cigars, boys.

Art Spimey spent a few days in Eugene this month.

Mr. Saylor, Director of the retirement committee, gave a very thorough discussion on the employees retirement fund here in Klamath Falls, in the Circuit Court Room in the courthouse, March 15, at 8:00 P.M.

JOHN DAY CHAPTER No. 13

History repeats itself. About a year ago we wrote in this column that patching, oiling, shovel and bridge crews, and, last but not least, logging trucks, were contributing to the headaches of our District Maintenance Superintendent, Vic Coffey. The first three are rapidly descending upon him again, while the last two are with him always.

Joe Clark, scale house specialist, has just completed a fine new scale house at John Day.

T/5 Sgt. Norman Watkins, former truck driver at Hereford, has been discharged from the Army Engineers after some three years' service in the South Pacific. He visited here a few weeks. T/5 Sgt. Hubert L. Watkins, former truck driver in the bridge crew, is still in Germany. They are sons of Ed Watkins, Hereford motor graderman.

CRATER LAKE CHAPTER No. 16

P. W. Stevenson, carpenter with James Bedingfield's bridge crew, is in Grants Pass convalescing from an injury suffered at Elkton some time ago. While here, Mr. Stevenson is spending his time trying to catch a few fish.

Leo Kerber and crew are in this locality patching the highways of this district.
