ROUND-UP CHAPTER No. 24

On April 2 this chapter made the necessary arrangements for Mr. Coleman, Civil Service Director, to appear at the Vert Little Theatre in Pendleton, to answer questions and explain the civil service law. A nice group of state employees was present, representing all departments and some from as far distant as Lexington. Many questions and doubts were cleared up and all seemed to enjoy the discussion a great deal.

The following evening we held our regular meeting, and all officers and a good number of members attended. The meeting ended with the showing of color slides taken by "Pop" Chandler while in the Aleutians. These were enjoyed by all, but no one was interested in moving to those cold, dreary islands to live.

Our May meeting was held in the Highway office, due to the fact that our Congressman, Lowell Stockman, and a group of republicans held priority on our regular meeting place at the Vert Little Theatre. Considerable discussion was had on various phases of the Retirement Act, which was cleared up by a letter from Mr. Sailor. A wave of disappointment has been eminent in the employees that the 10 per cent raise did not materialize, and also the fact that the retirement deduction will cut down our take home pay made them feel an adjustment is in order. The Executive Secretary's fine report was read, making us feel better to think we have a man on the job doing the best he can. It was voted to not hold meetings in July and August.
