is holding the fort while "Chappy" is away.

Loren Weber of the Myrtle Creek engineering party, was recently 'spliced' in Roseburg. Congratulations from all the chapter, Loren, but doesn't this sort of thing usually call for cigars?

Scotty Watson returned from a recent band playing trip to Baker, quite red-eyed. He, of course, maintains that it was all from loss of sleep.

George Householder, helper at Roseburg, applied at the last meeting for relief from his duties on the refreshment committee. With the chapter picnic in the planning stage, and George being such a good supply sergeant, having done such a swell job in the past, his motion kind of got sidetracked. Too bad, George, but you can't expect the fellows to vote against their stomachs.

BEND CHAPTER No. 3

Wages, salaries, and more of the same was a topic which produced a sharp discussion at a special meeting June 22. Departure of new employees for more lucrative positions was reported as especially heavy, with a number of older ones giving up the struggle. Forrest Cooper, District Director, reported action by the Board of Directors and was given an overwhelming vote of support. A survey initiated at the meeting may now be reported as a large majority of employees depending upon some form of outside help (other than state pay) to maintain their standard of living. Retirement provisions and civil service received question and answer treatment.

Willard "Curly" Cottingham, Bend, slipped on a rock while fishing and was painfully injured. Happily, his influence in the community appears undimmed.

Our secretary, Marguerite Elder, purportedly returned from being an interested La Grande observer, indicates
