LA GRANDE CHAPTER No. 4

Joe Sellers, La Grande shops, celebrated his 65th birthday, May 22. Hope you have many, many, more Joe.

Leland Dixon, Burns officeman, recently visited the La Grande shops. Yours truly didn't find out who he was until he left the shop—so didn't find out if Leo thanked Leland for that big, black cigar.

Vacation time is going full swing around the La Grande shops. Joe Campbell, shop superintendent, took off for the coast. Understand Joe ran into quite a lot of rain—too bad, Joe, better luck next time.

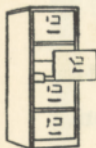

Some more of the vacationers are

Pete Thomas, Leslie Bellus, Herschel Talbott, Paul Nice, Clarence Gruis and Glenn Tetric. Have a wonderful time, boys.

Don Gruis, La Grande shop, had wedding anniversary. Don brought his wife a very beautiful gold wrist watch, and low and behold if his wife didn't surprise him with a gold wrist watch to match hers. Now they are both sporting new watches. Many more happy anniversaries, Don.

We recently had a visit from Mr. Stewart, who gave a talk on the progress of the Civil Service commission and the Retirement Plan.

ROSE CITY CHAPTER No. 5

The directors meeting held in Salem June 18 was attended by H. C. Broadwell, director; Claude Moore, chapter president; Ivan Dakin, delegate; and L. J. McReynolds, secretary-treasurer.

Regular meeting of Rose City chapter on June 14 was a business meeting only. Discussion centered on Unions and what would happen if we were forced to join. Opinion of those present was against joining or affiliating with any Union. Also, wages were discussed, and all agreed that we need more pay.
