bers in attendance. President Alfred McGuire presided over a short business meeting. Following the meeting, Forrest Stewart, executive secretary of the O.S.E.A., reviewed the achievements of the association and outlined plans for future activities. Of special interest to members was his report on the Civil Service and Retirement bills.

At the conclusion of the program, during which Mr. Silas Gaiser, Administrator of the State Unemployment Compensation Commission, addressed members of the chapter, dancing and refreshments were in order.

Plans are being made for a picnic to be held early in August.
