

of objections to classifications, and figuring the ratings will produce a like number.

Oliver B. Huston
Press Correspondent

LIBRARY CHAPTER No. 23

By this time no doubt nearly everyone has had his vacation and is full of vigor and enthusiasm. Not so with your correspondent, however, as she already happens to be looking forward to next year's vacation with much gusto. While on that subject, here are a few highlights of who has been where the past summer and also who has left our group for other fields.

State Library

Esther Barnes resigned the middle of August, when she was married to Dr. C. A. Downs of this city.

Caroline Jakubec resigned the latter part of July to enter the Order of Benedictines at Mt. Angel.

Betty Dotson, Barbara Ortman, Mary Keefer, Sylvia Mattson, and Marcia Hill spent a few days at Hood River, during which time they hiked around Lost Lake.

Agnes Shields, Mary Keefer, and Loretta Fisher attended the Pacific Northwest Library association meeting at Vancouver, B. C.

Vocational Department

Calvin Kent and family made quite an extensive motor trip, which took them to Salt Lake City, Yellowstone Park, Kansas, and way points.

Veterans' Administration

Al J. Crose made an 8,000 mile trip (pleasure and business) which included Chicago, Niagara Falls, New York City and Washington, D.C., returning to Oregon via the central route. Some time was spent in Philadelphia attending the Lion's convention, of which Mr. Crose was district governor.

State Department of Education

D. A. Emerson spent some time in Washington, D.C., attending a meeting of the National Planning Committee of the National Council of Chief State School Officers.

Florence E. Beardsley attended the National Education association meeting in Buffalo, N.Y., as a representative of the State Department of Education and
(Continued on next page)

Pade's Coffee Shop

A Good Place to Eat

1241 State St. Salem, Oregon

Meet Your Friends—
Dining and Dancing at Club Tumble Inn

On Hwy. 99E. two miles No. of Albany
Open every night except Sunday.
Props., Francis L. Wester &
Russell A. Wolfer.

When in Moro Eat and Sleep

at

Moro Hotel & Coffee Shop

Headquarters for All Occasions

Moro, Oregon

U. S. 97

SINCE 1851 . . .

The Oregon  Statesman

has reported state capital news, following the capital from Oregon City to Salem to Corvallis to Salem.

It still is reporting the news—all of it—fresh with your morning coffee.

PHONE 9101 FOR A START