set the disappointments received by the many deer hunters this season.

ASTORIA CHAPTER No. 8

Lewis Kerber's paving crew is set up in Rainier. Looks like the weatherman is going to be the judge as to whether they will complete the job or move on.

Frank Dillingham, caretaker at Bradley park, is seriously ill. The chapter extends sympathy and hope for his speedy recovery.

Max Goodwin, who was away for two months, has returned to work with Roy Boldt's maintenance crew.

Floyd Simon, superintendent of ferries in Astoria, was a patient in the Naval hospital for a few days. He is back on the job again and feeling fine. Don't work too hard, Floyd.
