Oregon Liquor Control Commission, had been elected District Director for District No. 1 of the association, for 1947. LeRoy Boldt was elected alternate District Director. Mr. Boldt is a member of Chapter No. 8, Astoria.

Mr. Allen A. French and Mr. William M. Burns were elected as delegates to the General Council meeting to be held in Salem on November 9, 10 and 11. Mr. French is employed by the State Board of Health and Mr. Burns by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission. Mr. C. W. Clark, employed by the State Board of Health, and Mr. Chas. F. Thompson, employed by the Industrial Accident Commission, were elected as alternates.

It was motioned and seconded that Chapter No. 17 have an open meeting for all members, inviting all state employees who are not members of the association, to sell them on the idea of joining. Mr. Irvin Ail is in charge of the arrangements for this meeting. Notices will be mailed out later, but it is believed the meeting will be held on November 18.

Mr. Forrest Stewart, Executive Secretary of the association, appeared and gave an interesting talk on the classification and pay plan.

OREGON CHAPTER No. 22

A new list of officers and committee workers headed by David H. Cameron as president has taken charge of the Chapter at the Unemployment Compensation Commission following election early in November, and all promise to make things hum during the ensuing year. Robert Putnam from the tabulating section is the new vice president, while the remaining officers are holdovers: George Renshaw, secretary; Margaret Lapschies, recording secretary; Fred Fralich, treasurer; and Claude M. Johns, delegate.

With legislative problems to the fore, John Anning has been named chairman of the civil service committee and George Gabriel in the same position for the retirement group. Both will keep in touch with legislative developments as affecting the newly established employees' rights, and they expect to work closely with other groups to strengthen
