

ary, this new job gives Frank an opportunity to return to his old love, that of auto mechanic, his main duty being to see that the big trucks keep rolling, and he'll do it, as he is one of the best mechanics in Eastern Oregon and will be missed by the department.

William Hyatt has been chosen to succeed Mr. Frey. Bill spent several years at Ukiah, and we think his experience in bucking the snow and cold there should fit him ideally to take over at Austin.

PORTLAND CHAPTER No. 17

We are getting off to a good start for the year 1947. Interest is very high, and our new officers are full of plans and enthusiasm for the betterment of our chapter for the new year.

At the last meeting, Mr. Clark, from the State Board of Health, was elected president, and Mr. Irvin Ail, vice president. Committees were to be appointed later.

The following is an excerpt from a printed New Years message written by Allen A. French, our past president. "Yes, good resolutions are always in order and they should be resorted to whenever we find that our approach to our civic or other problems require alteration or repair. Let's all consider each day of 1947 as New Year's Day so far as good resolutions are concerned. If we will all do this we can stand before our private mirror a year from now and say, 'Not bad brother, not bad at all.' Happy New Year to all."

CAPITOL CHAPTER No. 19

Chapter 19, which has often threatened to do something big, really came out of its shell on the night of December 17 when the annual Christmas party was staged at the Gold Arrow restaurant.

Florence Ames, in charge of decorations, had the tables charmingly
