

fussed up in a manner which only the feminine touch could accomplish, while Esther Hilmer did her usual good job in producing a musical and dramatic program. She had Mrs. Arthur Johnson at the piano, several clever trumpet duets by Gordon Johnson and Dick Kemper, and an impressive Christmas reading by Mrs. Albert Gragg. An exchange of Christmas presents took place, the presents having been arranged under a lovely Christmas tree.

Garland Hollowell lead the Christmas carols, while Oliver Huston, after acting the role of Santa Claus, lead and rendered a snappier variety of songs.

There was a large attendance—the dinner was splendid—and everyone exuded "Joy to the World."

The annual election of officers was held the night of January 10, and the results promise a successful year with the witty Jessie Singleton as president, the sage Jim Young as vice president and the conscientious Garland Hollowell as secretary-treasurer.
