

the names and departments of all new members, committee appointments, action taken at meetings, plans and date for the next meeting and any news information available on general O.S.E.A. policies, new chapters and plans. Dues and membership reminders are always re-appearing on the sheet and a drawing is usually added to spice it up a bit. Other chapters might find this method useful in keeping their members unified and interested.

ROUND UP CHAPTER No. 24

Round Up Chapter held its regular meeting on December 4, 1946 at the Vert Little Theater, this being the installation of the new officers and the report from chapter delegate who attended the General Council Meeting at Salem.

Walter Clark, the retiring president, turned the gavel over to the new President, Lloyd O. Yeck, after thanking all those who had helped out during the year 1946 by serving on committees and attending meetings so faithfully.

The new members are: Lloyd Yeck, President; Truman E. Messenger, Vice President, and Homer P. Rogers was retained as secretary and treasurer.

The members present were very much interested in the activities of the general council and were pleased to learn that so much progress had been Chapter 24 takes this belated oppor-

made in the betterment of working conditions and salary adjustments. Considerable discussion of Civil Service and phases of Old Age Retirement and the chapter delegates' report took up the evening until adjournment. One phase of this meeting was a resolution to get in more members during 1947 and to get those whose dues are behind to get back with their shoulder to the wheel. Most all are strong believers of insurance and I'm sure the O.S.E.A. is a type of insurance in itself.

The January meeting came on New Year's Day and it was of the opinion in December that we could probably get a good turnout but alas, the night before was just too tough, only three straggling souls showed up so we just went home again, our official meeting place was even barred. Better luck at our February meeting.

tunity to wish all a Very Happy New Year.

—L. O. Yeck
