

helper, were welcome visitors. W. G. Krueger, one of our past presidents, surprised us by being present. Surprise us again, Walt. One of the main topics at the meeting was "when do we get the promised raise."

Ted Layton transferred from the Eugene Chapter.

There was considerable discussion about reducing chapter dues. However, no change was made for 1947.

After adjourning, an enjoyable dutch lunch was served by the president and secretary. Please have it put on ice next time, Mack.

Charles Ralph was appointed on the refreshment committee for next meeting.

KLAMATH FALLS CHAPTER No. 12

Keith L. See, shovel operator and street foreman for oiling crew No. 4, has had some bad luck. He is now in San Francisco having a new cornea planted in his left eye. He is doing well, but is pretty tired of lying in bed.

Harold W. Harris, heavy equipment operator for Leo E. Kirkham's extra gang, lost his father, Elbra S. Harris, roller operator on the same crew, recently. Dick, as he was known, was well liked and was a good hand on any man's crew.

We pick up a new member and lose an old member once in a while, but we expect to increase our membership as soon as word gets around that the hamburger and onions, coffee and doughnuts, etc., are a regular thing at our monthly meetings. The few who attended the last two meetings certainly had enough to eat and there is plenty of hamburger in the cold storage locker for a few more meetings, and attendance should be looking up.

COOS BAY CHAPTER No. 14

Coos Bay Chapter No. 14 of the O.S.E.A. is still undergoing a face lifting, renovation, rejuvenation, reorganization, and what have you. As a result of this re-shuffle, I was appointed as press correspondent by our new president, Harry Yoder.

I'm new at this reporting business, so if you don't want to read the works of an amateur, now is the time for you to stop reading.
