

sion of plant industry, under which SPI operates for the department.

The annual meeting of the chapter, held earlier this year at the Dairy Co-op hall in Salem, was the first gala occasion for this group. A potluck dinner in which wives and husbands of members also participated was the highlight. Special guests were Director E. L. Peterson of the department, who always has a fine word to say for O.S.E.A.; Attorney Leo Smith of O.S.E.A.; and Jean Brimacombe (a former department employee) of the O.S.E.A. office. Each talked briefly.

The election of officers found Hugh Taylor, assistant chief of the division of plant industry, named president; O. K. Beals, chief of the division of foods and dairies and weights and measures, vice-president; and Hilda Bartels, secretary to the chief of the plant division, secretary-treasurer.

SUCCESS CHAPTER No. 30

One of the main topics of conversation among members of Chapter No. 30 concerns the five-day week plan for state employees. Perhaps by the time this article appears in print we'll all be enjoying Saturdays off (Allah be praised).

Just in case you've forgotten who heads this new chapter in the Portland area, we're going to list the officers for you again. They are: Jack Norton, president; Genevieve Kirtley, vice-president; Jane Hermann, secretary; and Ida Humphries, treasurer. Most of the officers and membership come from the unemployment compensation commission and the state employment service.

Another topic of conversation prevalent these days has to do with vacations. Inasmuch as the new unemployment compensation law goes into effect in
