Contact Winston Shereff for plain and fancy sewer cleaning.

Jimmy Robertson and his gang from Shaniko were in The Dalles June 28. Jimmy was the same as usual.

Frank Forbes and his outfit at Maupin didn't get in on our storm. They got quite a bang out of the rest of us combing the mud out of our whiskers.

Clyde Gilmore of Moro has a new game he plays, called, "Sickle, sickle, who's got the sickle."

The Dalles engineers must have laid an egg, by the way they cackle. Yep, nearly 100 per cent members of O.S.E.A. They are having a little struggle to get the head rooster in the coop.

Koons has been busier than a cranberry merchant the past month. Never a dull moment.

The fish merchants from Oak Springs were out in force at our June 28 meeting. We have some good boosters in that crew.

Maynard and his helper are wondering if the squirrel hunters will ever run out of ammunition.

Now I'm dry. See more of you in swimming.

COQUILLE CHAPTER No. 10

Our June meeting was held on an off date to accommodate a visit from Mr. Forrest Stewart, as he was unable to attend on the regular night. The attendance was not what we expected, as some members did not get word of the change in meeting date.

President Tucker was prevented from attending because his children had the chicken pox, so Vice-President Shelton took charge.

After opening, the meeting was turned over to Mr. Stewart, who gave us a nice talk on some interesting topics.

A pot luck lunch was served, and Sec. McClure presented some entertainment, which was enjoyed by all present.

Our July meeting was held on the regular date, with President Tucker back in the chair, and there was a fair attendance. Past District Director Erwin Clark and his helper were present.

The main topic discussed was how to get better attendance and new members. Mr. Bany of the member-
