KLAMATH FALLS CHAPTER No. 12

Raymond E. Van Wormer, of Sand Creek section maintenance crew, is the proud father of a son, born July 10, weight 7 pounds, $\frac{1}{4}$ ounce. Father and son are doing well.

Last year the Klamath Falls chapter held its annual picnic at Denton park, on the Crater Lake highway. Such a good time was had, that we are holding it there again this year, on August 24. Coffee, ice cream, and pop will be furnished by the O.S.E.A., but bring your lunch basket, well filled. George Van Horn is always hungry. Any liquid refreshments should be checked with your correspondent, so he will know where to find them.

CAPITOL CHAPTER No. 19

Chapter 19 had its finest party on June 9 in the basement of the Salem Women's club, when a big pot-luck dinner was served to an over-flow crowd. This is the ideal kind of meeting for attendance since papa has to follow mama to get fed; or if papa is the employee, then it's easy to persuede mama to come along with a prospect of good eats and no dishes to wash.

The entertainment was made up of a showing of beautiful Oregon travel movies by Ted Rosin, now acting photographer for the Travel Bureau of the Highway Commission and the appearance of a male quartet originated in the chapter. Members of the quartet are Reynolds Ohmart, Garland Hollowell, LeRoy McDuffie and Oliver Huston. After the crowd had indulged in group singing, some verses were sung by the quartet with choruses of
