

"It Ain't a Gonna Rain No More."
This produced a lot of laughs. To protect this publication from libel suits, the undersigned will admit authorship of the following verses which were sung lustily to the tune of "It Ain't a Gonna Rain No More":

Oh the 40 hour week is really here,

The weekends promise fun.

O.S.E.A. can feel real proud

As the power behind the gun.

When we retire it's nice to know

We won't be busted flat.

That monthly pay will mean we eat,

With a place to hang our hat.

Jim Young is a real fine guy

He sure can tell a whopper.

D'ya think his heart would stand the shock

If some kid called him "papa"?

Prineville Viv is a cowgirl bold,

She wears no "mere man's" collar.

When she wraps herself around a horse,

You oughta hear it holler!

"Bert" Ganong is a jolly soul,

A gal of style and form.

The summer bathers like her 'round

'Cause she keeps the ocean warm.

Johanna Perry is a sweet young thing,

A big smile is her sign.

What cheer she'd bring to a bachelor home

So boys, fall right in line.

Our Colonel Hal is the ladies' pal,

But "cagey" is the word.

He's fooled the dears for 60 years

And is still a single bird.

And now we're down to our last verse,

We jive boys like to send.

But as is true with all "good" things

This song will have to end.

SUCCESS CHAPTER No. 30

Current topic of discussion these days continues to be on "Ye Old Vacation Time," with everyone either telling where he's been or where he's going.

Jack Norton, deputy in U. C. adjustment unit, is back on the job, looking hale and hearty after a two weeks vacation, one week of which was spent at home and one in his home town, Boise, Idaho. Lee Knipe, another good-looking boy in the U. C. adjustment unit, has returned from his vacation. Lee took a swing around the
