

northwest, including visits to Seattle and Vancouver, B. C. How was the drinking water up there, Lee?

Members of Chapter 30 were shocked recently when they learned of the passing of Clarence Etter, chief of placements, employment service. He had been a state worker for many years, and his death is a genuine loss to his many friends and co-workers. Sincere condolences are extended to his wife and family.

Jasper Savage and Clarence Madison, both claims takers in U. C., retired July 1 from state service. Both were well liked by claimants and co-workers, and they will both be sincerely missed. We wish them the best of luck in anything they do.

Chapter 30 members wish to take this opportunity to extend sincere regrets to Harry Robbins, supervisor of registrations, whose father passed away on July 16.

Anne Robel, clerk with the Employment Service, looked like one of those deep-red lobsters on a recent Monday. Seems that she likes to spend her spare time climbing Mt. St. Helens in the face of the sun. Looks nice on you, Anne! By the way, on another recent weekend Anne received a bad "sun bake" at Manzanita beach, where she became a heroine by helping save a friend from disaster in the surf. Congratulations, Anne!

Well, well, well! Look at all the blondes and brunettes! They're recent additions to the clerk staff of the unemployment compensation office on the second floor, S. W. 12th and Stark streets. They are Margaret McLaughlin, Bernice Lind, June Hoskinson and E. Norine Morris. (What, no redheads!) There are also some good-looking male additions to the staff, girls. They are George Richards, Bob Hecker, Stanley Lindstrom, Richard Keenan, Frank Bellinger, and Terrence Dolan. Oh, oh! We can't get away with this! We almost failed to mention Bonnie Lou Alphin, who is also a new member of the U. C. clerk staff. Pardon, Bonnie! We're glad to have you (as well as the others) with the department.
