

income tax law and a proportionate property tax measure. Along with alleviating the increasing demand upon government services, the passage of the sales tax at least will give Oregon a start on matching the progressive thinking of our coastal neighbors, Washington and California."

In the September-October issue of this magazine we will present a summation of the most important arguments both against and in favor of the sales tax act. Our interests as state employees lie in being employed by a solvent and prospering employer. This subject seems worthy of our serious consideration and intelligent thought.

CANADIAN COMMISSION BROADCASTS PROGRAM

The Civil Service Commission of Canada recently went on the air in a radio broadcast to acquaint Dominion citizens with its activities. The broadcast explained classification and pay policies, and described in detail the Commission's examining and recruitment procedures. The program was one of a series sponsored by the Processional Institute of the Civil Service of Canada.—Civil Service Assembly Newsletter, July, 1947.

A clinical center has been established in Ottawa, Canada, to provide facilities for giving medical examinations to Dominion employees, and to review the requests of employees for sick leave.—Civil Service Assembly Newsletter, July, 1947.

You'll find as you grow older that you weren't born such a very great while ago after all. The time shortens up.—William Dean Howells.

Social problems can no longer be solved by class warfare any more than international problems can be solved by wars between nations. Warfare is negative and will sooner or later lead to destruction, while goodwill and cooperation are positive and supply the only safe basis for building a better future.—J. Nansen.
