

Jane took one of the sororities on a trip to Rockaway, and later she accompanied one of the girl's clubs to Ocean Lake. Twenty-two young ladies made the latter trip and Jane said she didn't have much time to do her knitting. She made a huge pot of chili beans for 65 one evening. Evidently the boys out-numbered the girls three to one!

Specialized service for professional, managerial, clerical and sales applicants to the Oregon state unemployment service are now being handled in a separate office in the central building, 530 S.W. 10th avenue.

FROM OAK SPRINGS ON THE DESCHUTES RIVER

Gene Goff, superintendent of hatcheries with the game commission, was a visitor at Oak Springs last week.

Our liberation trucks are through hauling for the present. They will return in about two months to make further trout plantings.

Ed Suiste, Darrell Devenport, A. B. Smith, and F. Samuelson attended the meeting in The Dalles to hear Mr. Stewart and Mr. Vannette talk on the new insurance plan.

Darrell Devenport is spending the weekend in Bend. Better just bring her down to Oak Springs, Darrell, and save all that gas.

Ed Suiste visited High Rock and returned with a good supply of huckleberries, but minus some paint on one fender. Ed says those roads are just too "durn" narrow for two Chevs.

The chapter members here have the old lariat swinging, and we figure on roping in a couple new members in the very near future.
