ALBANY CHAPTER No. 7

Regular meeting of Albany Chapter No. 7 comprising Linn and Benton Counties of District No. 6 was held at Moose Hall, Albany, Monday, October 13.

Annual election of officers resulted as follows: L. A. McCoskrie, president; James Glenn Adams, vice president; Bill Mann, secretary-treasurer; Russell M. Smith, delegate to general council; Dr. W. B. Bollen of Oregon State College, Corvallis, alternate delegate; C. O. Budlong, reporter for The Oregon State Employee.

After the meeting the members adjourned to the "Hub Cafe" for refreshments. There were about 20 in attendance.

The November meeting of Albany Chapter was held on Monday, the 10th. The new officers took their chairs for the first time. Under the energetic campaign of new membership, and Bill Mann's "hound and hog" mail program to every member, we had an attendance of 49 at this meeting.

Members are paying their dues, and new ones are being recruited every day. We have three new members at the O.L.C.C. Store No. 32 at Albany. This branch is 100 per cent now.

Our Executive Secretary, Forrest V. Stewart, from Salem, attended this meeting. He gave a good talk on insurance, and the Albany Chapter qualified for the new insurance program. Forrest also talked on other subjects, and was much pleased at the new life of our members and chapter.

Albany Chapter really has some good fishermen among its members. Carl Lucht of the O.L.C.C. Store drew second prize, and Glenn Adams of the Highway Department drew third prize, at Barrett's Salmon Derby. They caught their Silversides and Chinook in Alsea, Yaquina and Beaver Creek Bays on the Coast.

THE DALLES CHAPTER No. 9

Good news from here, a new chapter formed. The State Hospital at The Dalles formed its own chapter, with 50 members so far. They are a welcome addition to the Association.

For some reason or other, news seems to be a bit scarce this time. One
