

adopted as the policy of the association.

Mr. R. M. Smith thought this was in conflict with the constitution and by-laws but it was pointed out that resolutions and other business still could come from the floor; that this early preparation was simply to expedite the business insofar as possible.

Motion was made that the resolutions be sent in as early as possible before the General Council meeting. Motion carried.

Mr. Query moved that the setting of the next annual meeting be discussed at the next Board of Directors meeting. Motion carried.

Membership Problems Discussed

Mr. Query brought up for consideration the possible appointment of a membership committee as a special committee with someone to head it who has membership as his only specific duty, whose sole responsibility it would be to see that everybody works on the membership problem. A useful aggressive committee is needed.

Mr. White said he had been thinking along that line, but that in reality the Association has a standing committee statewide. The district directors are part of the membership committee and each chapter has such a committee. It is the duty of the district director to take what steps are necessary to create interest, wake up old chapters and to give various chapters the news of the General Council and Board of Directors. He might appoint two or more in each district to help him. It might be advisable for the district director to have a committee in his district.

Mr. R. M. Smith said he believed some of the work done in the past had been injurious to the Association; that there had been membership committees appointed and membership drives made
