PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

Periodically, Ye Staff feels constrained to call attention to the advertisers whose bids for your business appear in this magazine. These business men support in large measure the magazine costs. Most of them like the OSEA and what it stands for. All of them pay good money to advertise their services, and none of them are asked to pay on the basis of charity. They deserve your patronage!

Effort has been made in this issue to group these, our advertisers, by locations. We didn't do this for the fun of it. We want you, as a reader, to see those ads which can be of special interest to you. We want you to remember them, trade with them, and let them know you are with them because they are with us. If you mention this magazine when trading with them, you will find them appreciative. Advertisers like to know which of their ads bring results.

Now then, boost for this magazine and the OSEA in this practical way. If our advertisers like your business, the State Employee will likewise benefit. This is a game in which every one can win! Try it!

CIVIL SERVICE HELPS O.S.E.A.

For many months now the magazine staff has been gathering Civil Service Commission news for the Oregon State Employee. We wish to let the members of the OSEA know that we have received splendid cooperation from Mr. Robert Johnson and the other employees of the department. They have been helpful at all times and have given generously of the information we have requested.

Such cooperation is appreciated by the magazine staff and by the employees who are eager for the information so readily made available to us.

Definition: Vision is what people think you have when you guess correctly.

The sages do not consider that making no mistakes is a blessing. They believe, rather, that the great virtue of man lies in his ability to correct his mistakes and continually to make a new man of himself.—Wang Yang-Ming.
