

Kirtley, G.I. adjuster, was married May 15th; several of the boys in UC and ES attended a "stag" party in Salem recently (for the sake of propriety and the safety of husbands, we decline to publish their names).

Helen Daskalos, ES, celebrated her (?) birthday April 30th. A group of her co-workers found out about it and staged a "surprise" party for her.

Jack Urman, ES, has requested that his ad for a new girl friend be removed. We wonder why? Perhaps that last ad got some results for Jack?

Sincerest sympathy is extended Cliff Mabee, Contributions Section, at the recent passing of his mother.

STATE EMPLOYEE TO SERVE AS VISITING EXPERT IN JAPAN

Glen L. Weaver, State Supervisor of Occupational Information and Guidance, has accepted a ninety-day assignment as Visiting Expert in vocational guidance with the Military Government in Japan. He left Salem by air, Sunday evening, May 2, for Washington, D.C. He then flew from Washington to Tokyo.

The purpose of his visit is to advise and assist the Civil Information and Education Section, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, in the planning and implementation of programs for improving vocational guidance in the Japanese school system. His duties will include conferences and consultation with Japanese leaders and groups under the supervision of SCAP personnel.

Mr. Weaver is a 1929 graduate of Oregon State College. He taught vocational agriculture five years at Gresham Union high school and has served as County Supervisor, Assistant State Director and District Supervisor in the field of rural rehabilitation in Oregon. Weaver has been with the Oregon State Division of Vocational Education for five and one-half years as assistant state supervisor of vocational agriculture in his present position.

COMPLETE BANKING SERVICE

Here you will find complete banking facilities and prompt, friendly service.

Special CHECKING ACCOUNTS

- No Minimum Balance
- No Monthly Service Charge
- Any amount opens an account
- Only $1.00 for a Book of ten checks.

Personal Loans

... for any legitimate need. Low interest rates . . . reasonable credit requirements . . . convenient repayment terms.

Do Your Banking at

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation