

Rule No. 35. Investments of the Retirement Fund shall be carried on the books of the Retirement System at their amortized values.

Rule No. 36. Jurors, witnesses, and persons employed temporarily as election officials, including those who distribute and collect election ballots, shall not be considered as public employes within the meaning of the Public Employes Retirement Act.

Rule No. 37. Unless and until he has retired under option 2 or 3 a member of the system may designate new beneficiaries or revoke previous designations by giving written notice to the Retirement Board on forms furnished by the Board, but no revocation or new designation shall be effective until received and approved by the Executive Secretary of the Public Employes Retirement Board.

In case a member has designated a spouse as beneficiary, nothing contained herein shall permit a change or revocation of such designation without the written consent of the beneficiary unless the beneficiary's interest has been extinguished.
