SALEM CHAPTER No. 1

Salem Chapter No. 1 has held meetings regularly during the summer and has had quorums (25 members or more) at each meeting. Interest in OSEA problems has been kept alive. Our annual picnic for all Salem OSEA members was held at Paradise Island, Sunday, August 22. Many enjoyed the free pop, coffee, and other refreshments and ice cream. It is assumed that lunches furnished by individual members or groups were also enjoyed. Games were played and a good social get-together was the order of the day. At our August meeting, the first nominations for delegates were made. Further nominations are due at the September meeting with delegate elections taking place in October. Our membership is increasing at the rate of about 20 per month and all signs point to a very active
