

Melin assisted by Sarah Tennis, Grace Hartley and Clara Isaak. It consisted of a choral group of 30 voices directed by George Baker, accordion solos by Col. Gillard, piano solos by Jim Kirkland, tap dance by Jerry and Gary Neal, Judy Baker, and comedy acts by Bud Melin.

After dinner, everyone danced to the music of the Men About Town led by Al Finn. Preceding the dance the Grand March was in order, led by Miss Virginia Nowlen and Mr. Paul Gurske. The prize waltz was won by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Montgomery. Mr. Arens' ability to get around won him the prize for most popular dancer. Numerous other prizes were awarded during the evening.

The January meeting was given over largely to reports of the General Council by Ralph Southwick and Loren White, and to discussion of pending legislation.

A report of membership by Chairman Virginia Nowlen showed a gain of 57 members during the month of December making a total of 230 for
