

District Two Picnic at Champoeg; 1500 Attend First Annual Festival

Under the leadership of Dave Cameron, Director of District No. 2, OSEA, the first annual festival was organized and held at Champoeg State Park on Sunday, August 28.

The hard-working and highly efficient committees that did the spade work and made this festival a success were as follows:

Activities: Sam Randall, Neva Dal-las, Paul Gemmell.

Entertainment: Peggy Arnaz, Kay Vedder, Ruth Branch.

Finance: John Manning, Mary Laughlin.

Refreshments: Frank Hutchison, Art Rockafellow.

Publicity: R. W. Southwick, Janeane Greenlea.

Transportation: Cameron Maul, Marvin Helland.

The headquarters staff of Forrest Stewart, Gene Schmidt and Jean Brimacombe aided in large measure, with Gene Schmidt, Asst. Executive Secretary, capably carrying the major load of coordinator and liason officer.

Forrest Cooper acted as master of ceremonies in his usual and interesting, efficient manner; former Governor Charles A. Sprague delivered an enlightening address on the historical significance of Champoeg; and many of the talented OSEA members participated in furnishing the entertainment program.

As pictured, six female impersonators vied for the honor of festival queen with the contest close and heated as each "beauty" had wide appeal and loyal hosts of friends. Bob Ashby of SIAC Chapter No. 20, was declared

