

What Every State Employee Should Know; OSEA Members Could Tell

OSEA is an independent, non-political, self-governing Association.

OSEA is pledged to promote the welfare of State and employee.

OSEA works toward harmony and efficiency in the state service.

OSEA sponsors and supports legislation beneficial to state employees, opposes that which is not.

OSEA has an enviable reputation for honesty, sincerity and integrity.

OSEA is the only organization through which employees may speak collectively.

OSEA is the able defender of employee rights.

OSEA has grown rapidly and has forty-six chapters throughout the state.

OSEA publishes a quarterly magazine and a monthly News Bulletin, both free to the members.

OSEA has a permanent Headquarters Office in Salem, staffed with an Executive Secretary, Assistant and Administrative Secretary. OSEA retains an attorney for legal representation before state commissions and legislature.

Every state employee who has received even one months pay check has benefitted from the OSEA efforts in his behalf. He received at least $20 more than he would have if the Oregon State Employees Association hadn't obtained Civil Service for him and the three general pay increases since 1946. That $20 pays four years State dues in the OSEA! Join the OSEA once, if not now a paid-up member. Help support the one Association that delivers the goods for state employees!

BLOW-OUT

Prof: "I say, your tubular air container has lost its rotundity."

Motorist: "What?"

Prof: "I say, the cylindrical apparatus is no longer inflated."

Motorist: "Who?"

Prof: "The elastic fabric surrounding the circular frame, whose successive revolutions bear you onward in space, has not retained its pristine roundness."

Motorist: "Which?"

Small Boy: "Hey mister, you got a flat."—The Olive Beason.

Some men are so mean they should be afraid to shave themselves.
