

PORTLAND CHAPTER No. 17

Chapter 17—Oregon Liquor Control Commission—has its membership drive in full swing. It is being conducted and promoted in an able and efficient manner by C. A. Bauer, chairman of the membership committee. There will be a report of the progress made in the next issue of the Oregon State Employee.

Mr. Bauer points out that all full-time employees of OLCC in any part of the state are eligible to join our chapter. We need you and you need us that we may, by our united efforts in making our job more applicable to accepted living standards and working conditions, show strength where and when needed, that those in the legislature who determine our lot will weigh our problems more carefully.

In order that the members of Chapter 17 may get in touch with our chapter officers, all of Portland: President, Austin B. Thompson, 6429 NE Garfield Ave.; vice-president, Vernon Mackay, 13912 SE Claybourne; secretary-treasurer, Madge B. Kershnik, 6707 N. Michigan Ave.; membership chapter, C. A. Bauer, 934 SW Salmon; entertainment chapter, Joe Waller, 1116 N. Failing St.; publicity chapter, Wesley Wolf, 3118 NE 8th Ave; past president, L. B. Russell, 6305 NE Garfield.

The publicity chairman will have need for reporters and helpers from different stores and departments in putting out the chapter news bulletin. The chapter has purchased a small mimeograph machine, so get in touch with us if you have any news or information that will be of interest to our members.

COLUMBIA CHAPTER No. 34

The state income tax department has moved in with us for a couple of months. This department will be one of the new chapters after the income tax is over. A charter has already been applied for, I understand. Welcome to the OSEA.

In order to coordinate OSEA business from all the chapters and to knit the organization closer together, the presidents of the Portland chapters are going to have a noon luncheon to be held once a month here in Port-
