

tion he owned and operated an automotive parts and service business in Colorado and a hardware store in Eugene.

Mr. Jones was born in Grand Junction, Colorado, and attended high school there where he won letters in basketball and track. He played football in Colorado college. He prefers square dancing, wood working, fishing and home movies now to football. He has one child, Sylvia Ann. He is active in the Masonic lodge where he is a 32nd degree Mason. He also belongs to the Elks and to the United Commercial Travellers.

Joseph D. Wilson

Joseph D. Wilson is director of membership for the OSEA. Originally a member of Marshfield chapter No. 14, he now belongs to Oregon chapter No. 22. Mr. Wilson has had 13 years of state service as an investigator for the state department of labor, manager of a state unemployment commission office and his present title of supervisor of farm placement for Oregon State Employment Service. He was born in Albany, Oregon, and attended high school at Drain and college at Oregon College of Education. He taught school from 1930-1937.

Mr. Wilson lives in Salem, has three children, Joe, Jr., Jimmy and Jackie. He has as hobbies gardening, golf and watching baseball games. He is an active worker in the IAPES, an organization of employment service workers.

Willard B. Lawless, director of insurance for OSEA, is an employment security deputy for the unemployment compensation commission at the 12th and Stark Street office in Portland. He has been an OSEA member since 1947 in the Success chapter No. 30. Mr. Lawless was a second lieutenant, serving in the European theater of operation in W.W. II. He was born in Fresno, California, attended Fresno Technical high school and Fresno State college. Other positions held have included shipping clerk, salesman in shoe stores, and insurance work. His present hobby is golf, with bowling on the side. He played football in high school. He has two children, Mary Elizabeth and William Michael.

Willard Lawless

More than ever before, in our country, this is the age of the individual. Endowed with the accumulated knowledge of centuries, armed with all the instruments of modern science, he is still assured personal freedom and wide avenues of expression so that he may win for himself, his family and his country greater material comfort, ease and happiness; greater spiritual satisfaction and contentment.

—Dwight D. Eisenhower.

I have always felt that the surest way to qualify for the job just ahead is to work a little harder than anyone else on the job one is holding down.

—Charles M. Schwab.