

James W. Vaughn

James W. Vaughn, director of district 3, OSEA, has been president of his chapter, Roseburg 2, and director and delegate in his four years of membership. A veteran in state service, he has spent his 26 years with the Game Commission as a fish culturist, a fish hatchery superintendent and is now a wild life game supervisor, a recent and well-deserved promotion.

Mr. Vaughn is a Kentuckian by birth, but graduated from high school in Glide, Oregon, where he had played baseball and basketball. His hobbies are appropriately, fishing, hunting and trap shooting. He is a Mason and an Elk. Married, he and his wife, Fannie, have one boy, Ivan.

* * *

Tom Edwards of Klamath Falls represents district 4 as district director, OSEA. A charter member of the organization, he has belonged to numerous chapters throughout southern Oregon where his work in the highway department has taken him. From his present position as district maintenance superintendent, Mr. Edwards can look back over 22 years with the highway department working as engineering aid and civil engineer.

A native of Condon, Oregon, he graduated from Mayville high school and attended Oregon State college. Both in high school and college he was athletically inclined, playing baseball, football and basketball. Now he mentions as hobbies, hunting and fishing.

Tom Edwards

Interested in engineering both on and off the job, he is a member of the Klamath Professional Council and the Association of Engineering Employees of Oregon. He is also a member of Knights of Columbus. His family consists of two daughters, Mary J. and Nancy E., and his wife, Marie.

* * *

August Moser, who is district 5 supervisor, OSEA, has been a member since the formation of chapter 4. Now a machinist in LaGrande for the state highway department, Mr. Moser has been with the department for 21 years.

He was born in Biberist, Switzerland, and came to the United States with his parents in 1888. They first lived in Logan, Utah for four years,

August Moser