CORVALLIS CHAPTER 29

The new president of Corvallis Chapter No. 29 is Dr. W. J. Chamberlin. He is associate professor of entomology, a gentleman who has been prominently identified with the college for more than a third of a century. Many of the members of OSEA will know him as commander of the American Legion, Department of Oregon. He is likewise past national executive committeeman of the American Legion, Department of Oregon. Dr. Chamberlin is a veteran of World Wars I and II, and there are indications that he is preparing to participate in the second half of World War II or World War III, whichever it turns out to be. He is not only expected to give Corvallis chapter vigorous and active leadership, but to make a fine contribution to the state organizations. His friends will have an opportunity to meet him at the general council to which he will be a delegate.

R. M. Harding was re-elected vice president. He will be remembered as being a delegate to the last general council meeting. Mrs. Vida Bower was succeeded by Mrs. Eileen Smith as secretary. Mrs. Smith is employed in the dormitory office of the college. She is intensely interested in the work of the association and will naturally make a fine replacement of Mrs. Bower on the executive council of chapter 29. Ted Yerian as membership secretary, will be succeeded by Elizabeth Dotson, now connected with KOAC. She is well known to most of the Salem members.

Miss Mae Nusbaum succeeds Mrs. Gladys Schloeman as treasurer. Miss Nusbaum is payroll clerk at the Oregon State College business office and as such has a wide acquaintance with all college employees.

The chapter is fortunate in retaining Dr. J. W. Sherburne, school of education of the department of psychology, as committeeman for the academic staff on the executive council and having Frank Smiley as successor to Harry Rutherford as councilman from the civil service group. Mr. Smiley is connected with the department of physical plant, which has charge of the maintenance of college buildings and grounds. P. M. Brandt becomes the ninth member of the executive council by virtue of being the immediate past president.

Delegates to the general council, in addition to President Chamberlin, will be Brandt and Mrs. Eileen Smith; the alternates will be R. M. Harding, R. B. Saunders and Mrs. Vida Bower.

SALEM CHAPTER No. 1

Vacations are about over for us, only a few saved time for hunting and fishing, and we are getting settled for the long grind before we can have another vacation, Ho, Hum!

It is hoped that attendance at our meeting will pick up, too, especially since the rainy weather has set in.

The jackpot has continued to grow throughout the summer as the owners of the names drawn have not yet been present. The pot was $21.90 last month, which will be added to the October drawing.

The feature presented at the state picnic was repeated for the September program, with one of the star performers, who didn't get to the picnic, adding much to the talent, pulchritude and entertainment of the program.

The chapter has acted upon two resolutions of general interest to state employees. One dealt with price controls and asked the board of directors to write the Oregon congressmen requesting that price controls be put into effect immediately and that the
